Curators Statement:

The monumental force of creation results not only in sublime and organic beauty but leads to our heightened sense of domination at all times both fortunate and unfortunate--our heavy emotional presence within the world that creates us. We become witnesses to the empirical process of life from simple cells to complicated structures every day as we experience form in the living objects surrounding humanity.

The DADA Showcase at Hyatt Regency Denver brings this motif forward in works that are exquisite and bold. It is a gathering of exceptional local talent not to be missed when in Denver for DAM's Hamilton Building opening festivities.

Featured Works:

Gallery 1261, Philip Maior, "Boat People"

Plus Gallery, Andy Miller, "The Scale"
Walker Fine Art, Tyler Aiello, "Two Worlds"
Artworks, Etc., Thomas Wermers, "Solo Flight"
Sandra Phillips Gallery, Katie Caron, "Cellular Blossom"
Walker Fine Art, Jonathan Hils, "Bulb" & "Buoy" (shown above, "Bulb")
Gallery 1261, Bill Starke, "Cat's Cradle"
